HICKMAN WANTS A SUPER-INTELLECTUAL JURY TO TRY CASE

Defense Will Challenge Any Juror Not Mentally Equipped To Try the Case

HARDY WAS PREJUDICED

Life Depends on Jury's Decision As to Sanity of Defendant

By Arthur L. Marek
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 26.—A super-intellectual" jury to sit in judgment on William Edward Hickman for the kidnaping and murder of 12 year old Marion Parker, will be sought by the defense.

This was revealed as the trial entered its second day with opposing counsel prepared to battle over the selection of a jury.

"We will challenge any prospective juror who is not mentally equipped clearly to understand pathological and psychological phases involved in an insanity defense," declared defense counsel Richard Cantillon.

The assignment of Judge J. J. Trabucco to preside over the hearing paved the way for the resumption of the trial today and untangled the legal snarl brought about yesterday when Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy disqualified himself.

Judge Hardy was charged with prejudice in an affidavit submitted by Jerome Walsh of Kansas City, chief counsel for Hickman.

In announcing that he would insist upon a highly intelligent jury, Associate Defense Attorney Cantillon explained that this step was made necessary by Hickman's plea of "not guilty by reason of insanity."

The life of Hickman, attorneys pointed out, depends upon the jury's decision on the question of whether the youth was sane or insane at the time he kidnaped and killed the Parker girl.

This is the only issue at stake under the new California statute which provides for an insanity defense.

For this reason, Cantillon said, the defense wants a jury capable of understanding the technical explanations of alienists who will be called as defense witnesses in an attempt to prove their contention of Hickman's unbalanced mental condition.

To combat the insanity defense, District Attorney Asa Keyes has marshalled seven alienists and psychiatrists who have examined and observed Hickman and who will testify that he is now sane and was sane at the time of crime.

Court attaches predicted today that the selection of the jury would not be completed until early next week. This, they said, would delay important testimony until the latter part of next week.

Meanwhile, a venire of 60, almost evenly divided between men and women, waited their call to the jury box.

Every effort will be made by the prosecution to expedite the trial, it was said at the District Attorney's office.

Judge Hardy, in vacating the bench, emphasized that Hickman will be tried speedily. He said:

"While I do not admit, but do deny that I am in anyway biased or prejudiced against the defendant, and to avoid the delay that may be occasioned by a protracted hearing with reference to my qualifications, and in order that the case may be heard, tried and determined with the least possible delay, I do hereby consent that the case be tried by another judge."

Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco, Judge Hardy's successor, was appointed to try the case by Judge Victor McClucas, presiding judge of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, who had been instructed to make the assignment by Chief Justice William H. Waste of the California Supreme Court.

The appointment of Judge Trabucco, whose jurisdiction is in Mariposa County, followed a long distance telephone conversation between Judge McClucas in Los Angeles and Justice Waste in San Francisco.

HULMEVILLE, Jan. 26.—At a business meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of Hulmeville-Middletown District, held in the school house here last evening, Mrs. Effie Smith was re-elected president of the organization.

POLITICAL SEASON IS NOW ON IN EARNEST

Yesterday Marked the Opening And Petitions Are In Circulation

CAPITOL HILL BUZZING

By S. I. Neiman
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Jan. 26.—The crack of dawn yesterday officially ushered in Pennsylvania's 1928 political season.

From the far corners of Penn's Woods came the hue and cry of partisan politics as an army of workers took the field—primarily to seek signatures on nominating petitions—but chiefly to lay the groundwork for a multitude of campaigns.

Yesterday was the first date for securing the signatures on petitions which are to be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

At least one and possibly two United States senators, thirty-six members of congress, twenty-five state senators, one member of the State Superior Court, 208 state representatives, an auditor general, state treasurer and delegates to both major national party conventions are to be named at the April primaries and November election.

Around Capitol Hill, which has dozed peacefully through the fall and winter, buzzed a swarm of political gossip. From the two senatorial camps announcements were expected which are to determine the trend of the entire campaign.

Senator-elect William S. Vare, Philadelphia, held the key to one tangled problem. Temporarily barred from his seat in the Senate and facing possible expulsion there was the ever present possibility the Philadelphian may force the issue by resigning and re-entering the lists for the seat thus vacated.

From the western part of the state, Senator David A. Reed's announcement that he will seek reelection was expected.

Although formal alignments of State leaders in both major parties are lacking, it was tacitly understood here that the Republican administration leaders favor a slate to include Charles Johnson, of Norristown, present Secretary of the Commonwealth, for Auditor General, while Edward Martin, of Washington, present Auditor General, is slated for State Treasurer.

It was understood these names would be included in a complete administration slate, including national delegates-at-large, to be announced in Philadelphia next week.

Nomination petition blanks, which were put in the mails last week, will begin to slowly trickle back during the next month, with a sudden rush of business shortly before March 5, the last day for filing. Candidates for offices of State-wide importance will be among the last to return their petitions.

The primaries will be on April 24, while the general election is Nov. 6.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS WIN FROM AMBLER

Local Sextet Hands Ambler Girls Second Defeat Of Season

FINAL SCORE 31 TO 14

By M. E. Nilis

Tuesday night in the Ambler high school "gym" the Bristol High girls' sextet gave Ambler girls their second defeat by a score of 31 to 14. At first the local team didn't show up so well, but when they became accustommed to the floor the girls started scoring.

Again the opponents found it hard to get by the fine guarding of "Pete" Praul, and "Lee" Giagnacova, and when the ball was down in their part of the floor they had a hard time keeping it there.

Captain Marion Harrison was high scorer with McFadden just one point behind her.

The teams were well matched in size but in playing ability Bristol outclassed Ambler. Some fine passes were used by both teams.

Robinson and Parry played good for the losing team.

News Briefs

YORK, Pa., Jan. 26 (I.N.S.)—Firemen today searched the ruins of the home of A. B. C. Williams, York Springs rural mail carrier, for the bodies of his wife and two of the three children who were burned to death when fire destroyed their brick dwelling at York Springs during the night.

Two other children escaped and the body of a third was recovered by the father early today.

The mother, Wesley, 6, Ethel, 3, and an eighteen-months old baby perished in the fire, caused when a kerosene lamp the mother was filling exploded. The flames, fanned by a high wind, rapidly spread through the structure, and when volunteer firemen and the father arrived the home was a roaring fire trap.

Nevertheless, the father, who had gone to a York Springs garage, dashed into the building, and retrieved the body of Ethel. He was prevented from returning for the others by volunteer firemen.

Ruth, 9, escaped from the flames and called neighbors, who summoned firemen. Ralph, 13, also escaped.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stoneback have moved from Jefferson avenue to their newly built home on Taylor street.

OUR BOY SCOUTS

The advice given from time to time to the men of Bucks County by County Scout Executive William Livermore to extend to the boys of the communities a sympathetic and kindly word or in some manner to show a helpful interest might well be heeded.

In years to come as well as at present will the result be felt, probably not in a particularly noticeable manner, but the benefit will be there as the seed of helpful advice or fatherly interest continues to grow.

The boys of the many towns throughout Bucks have decided that they will be "physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight." With the aid of their leaders, the scout committee members and other interested citizens they are making splendid progress. But this is not all that is necessary. The helpful influence of others who have had greater experience in life than the boys is needed, as well as the knowledge that would undoubtedly be helpful to the lads that could well be imparted by those well up in business circles.

It is not particularly easy for a lad in the early teens to live up to the 12 points of the scout law if those around are not showing their sympathy with the cause. But on the other hand, if he is encouraged by word and deed he will strain every effort to not only keep the laws himself but to enlist other eligible boys in the ranks of scouting.

One of the finest steps that could be taken for the welfare of the boys of Bucks and the lads of tomorrow would be for each individual to give as largely of his time, talent and money as possible toward the backing of the scout leaders and the boys themselves.

SARTORIAL

It used to be said—but why turn to the yesteryears, since the "store on wheels" and the mail-order package bring a men's wear shop to the farmer's door—the national capital is the style center of the nation.

Congress has to be well dressed to get the votes. Even the back areas now have a certain sartorial pride, with the result that neither a senator's six-year ticket nor a representative's two-year pasteboard is punched at the polls unless the candidate qualifies as the possessor of standardized suits, shoes, shirts and neckties, with at least one Tuxedo, if only a ready-made $35 outfit.

Six years of nation-wide suffrage to women has transformed Capitol Hill into a promenade of well-polished shoes, creased trousers, boiled shirts, haircuts and nifty ends of handkerchiefs protruding modestly from outside upper coat pockets.

The Thurman red bandana is gone forever. Two-gallon headpieces are rare and yellow and red waistcoats are rarer. Modish business suits of gray, blue and mixed weavings have chased the traditional long black Prince Alberts from the floor of the senate, and derbies are actually being hung on the hooks outside the chamber of the house.

Congress has become civilized in clothes. The senate has become a razor-using company, virtually clean-shaven, only here and there a mustache. There is hardly a paintbrush left to remind folks of the symbolical "Uncle Sam."

Many won't buy radios because they are still in the experimental stage, and yet they have telephones.

Are You Overdoing?

Overwork Throws a Heavy Burden on the Kidneys.

OVERWORK, rich foods and stimulating drinks put extra burdens on our kidneys. When the kidneys slow up, impurities remain in the blood and are apt to make one languid, tired and achy, with dull headaches, dizziness and often nagging backache. A common warning is scanty or burning secretions.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Are endorsed by users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

"WHEN YOU THINK OF FOOD, THINK OF ALMAR"

Jefferson said, "Absolute acquiescence in the decisions of the majority is the vital principle of republics."

Mr. William Allen White has aptly said two significant things: "First, you cannot mix alcohol with modern machinery and modern business; second, you cannot successfully violate one law that you do not like, and expect others to respect the particular laws that you do like."—(Adv.)

The Success Habit

Failure is the natural result of unintelligent effort. The former leads to an interesting prosperous life. The latter leads to an aimless life of drudgery.
